

Course Objectives

This Nationally Accredited course is designed for persons who are required to lead emergency responses specified in workplace emergency procedures.

This course covers the competency required to make decisions about personnel safety during a workplace emergency and to lead and give instructions on the priority order for responding to the emergency incident. People who undertake this work may act as the primary liaison with emergency services

Through the application of theory and practical training, participants will have the necessary knowledge and skills to understand how to respond to situations undertake safe evacuation in accordance with the site procedures.

Theoretical and practical assessments are conducted throughout the course. Upon successful completion of this course, each student will receive a Statement of Attainment.

Lead an Emergency Control Organisation

PUAFER006

Course Content

- Introduction
- Preparation & Prevention
- Standards & Legislation Requirements
- Importance of Regular Warden Training
- Emergency Planning Committee (EPC)
- Emergency Control Organisation (ECO)
- Workplace Emergency Systems
- Common Emergencies
- Responding to Emergencies
- Safety Procedures for Fires
- Dealing with Bomb Threats
- Calling the Emergency Services
- Observer Evacuation Checklist

Who Should Attend?

This course is designed for personnel who are responsible for coordinating the site emergency procedures to ensure the safety of occupants.

Course Details

Accredited: Yes
Where: Public & On Site
Pre-requisite:
PUAWER005B or PUAFER005
Operate as Part of an Emergency Control Organisation
When: As per AS3745

Provider No: 40349

 1300 886477
 mss-safety.com.au

